Excuse me, Senator Carpenter, I believe, or somebody
asked for a Roll Call vote.

SENATOR CARPENTER:  No, a record vote.

PRESIDENT:  A record vote.  All those in favor vote aye.
Those opposed vote no.  We're voting on the Keyes amendment.
Have you all voted?  Senator Keyes.

(End of Belt 6A)

(Begin Belt 7A)

SENATOR KEYES:  Senator Proud, I'm looking up there at the board and I see I just have 20....I have enough, I'm through.

PRESIDENT:  Clerk will record.

CLERK:  Record vote.  (See page 1457 of Journal).
26 ayes, 11 nays....Senator Nore voting no.  26 ayes, 12
nays, 11 not voting.

PRESIDENT:  Motion's adopted.  Senator Stahmer.

SENATOR STAHMER:  Mr. President,members of the Body.  I'm told by the senator from the Lincoln Journal that there's already a similar statute in the books right now but that still would make it unconstitutional.

PRESIDENT:  The Chair would note for Senator Keyes' edification that the Chair left the vote open about as long on that as he did on the motion to cease debate.  Now we have some honored guests visiting us under the north balcony.
R. H. "Bob" Lonsberry, he's the Secretary of Agriculture for the State of Iowa and two other gentlemen with the Iowa Department of Agriculture.  James Meeman and it looks like Earl M. Revell.  I may be incorrect about that.  And also Roger Sanman and Steve Malone.  Will you gentlemen rise and be recognized.  From the State of Iowa.  All right, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK:  Mr. President, the last amendment or motion is to adopt the severability clause by Senator Marvel.

SENATOR MARVEL:  So move.

PRESIDENT:  Senator Marvel has asked for the adoption of the severability clause to LB1059.  Is there any discussion?
If not, all those in favor vote aye.  Those opposed vote
no.  Clerk will record.

CLERK:  30 ayes, 0 nays.

PRESIDENT:  Amendment's adopted.  Any further amendments,
Mr. Clerk?

CLERK:  None, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT:  There are no further amendments offered to this bill.  Now, Senator Marvel.

SENATOR MARVEL:  Okay, I'd like to make some remarks about the bill.  Before the other amendments were attached, this
